

San Mateo Traffic Congestion Storm Water Fee

Information

San Mateo County's traffic congestion storm water pollution (TCSWP) program ended on December 31, 2012. The four dollar ($4) TCSWP fee collected by the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) for vehicles having a San Mateo County registration address or allocated county status is:

- Not due or collected if the registration fees became due on or after January 1, 2013.
- Still due and collected if the registration fees became due on or before December 31, 2012 (before the program ended).

Procedures

For vehicles having a San Mateo County registration address or allocated county status, do not collect or submit TCSWP fees unless the vehicle registration fees were due prior to January 1, 2013.

Background

The TCSWP was formed for traffic congestion management and storm water pollution prevention within San Mateo County. San Mateo was the only county participating in the TCSWP program. The Department of Motor Vehicles has collected the TCSWP fee on behalf of San Mateo County since July 2005.
